

THE SAVORY EXPERIENCE — IN — LONG ISLAND

A BOUTIQUE FOOD & WINE TOUR
APRIL 25-28, 2018

THE GOLD COAST

Long Island's North Fork, the playground to the famous & wealthy, will be yours with The Savory Grape's Jessica Granatiero and Tulay Lawton from April 25-28, 2018 as you engage in educational wine and culinary activities and savor gourmet foods and wine with VIP status at vineyards, specialty farms and restaurants near Greenport, NY. Greenport Village, an historic seaport located on Long Island's North Fork, is steeped in history and was recently named one of the prettiest towns in the U.S. According to The NY Times, "The North Fork's casual, recreation-friendly lifestyle is often a selling point...NoFo conveys the region's urban-chic-meets-country-casual vibe."

INCLUSIONS

- 3-night, 4-day accommodations at Harborfront Inn in Greenport, Village, a luxury North Fork hotel offering fine amenities & spacious accommodations.
- Round-trip transfer transportation to and from the Orient Point Ferry on Long Island to the Harborfront Inn. (Not inclusive of ferry ride itself.)
- All breakfast, lunches and dinners, except for dinner on your free night in town.
- Gourmet farm-to-table culinary experience at the welcome evening prepared by Italian-trained chef Sarah Nappa, and wine pairings with winemaker & husband partner Anthony Nappa.
- Lieb Cellars and Bridge Lane visit with Aussie-born winemaker Russell Hearn; educational charcuterie tasting and wine pairing with lunch.
- Instructive cheese, caviar and truffle tasting and wine pairing at the Village Cheese Shop with Bordeaux-trained sommelier & owner Michael Affatato.
- Private visit with Sparkling Pointe Vineyard's winemaker Gilles Martin who will teach and demonstrate the art of riddling & making sparkling wine prior to a lunch and oyster and bubbly tasting.
- Visit at Catapano Dairy Farm for an interactive milking demonstration and lesson in hand curating specialty, local cheeses and farm tour.
- Dinner at Noah's Restaurant, renowned for its small plates and fresh local ingredients and "Don't Miss" 4-star rating by the NY Times, in the heart of Greenport Village.
- Free time to relish in and explore Greenport and Love Lane shops.

THE SAVORY EXPERIENCE IN LONG ISLAND

HOSTS OF THE WEEK

Winemaker Anthony Nappa & Italian-trained Chef Sarah Nappa ~ Anthony received formal winemaking training in New Zealand. He has worked as a winemaker in New Zealand, Italy, California and New York. Sarah received her culinary training at the International Culinary Center outside of Parma, Italy.

Winemaker Russell Hearn ~ Russell began making wine in his native Australia and came to the US in 1990 when he gained his reputation at Pellegrini Vineyards. He co-owned and managed Long Island's first custom-crush facility and since 2012 has been the winemaker for Lieb Family Cellars in which he is a partner. Hearn has been featured in the Wine Spectator.

Michael Affatato ~ Michael's decades-long career has taken him around the globe. In France's Bordeaux region, Michael owned and managed his family's 17th-century 28-acre vineyard producing Chateau La Gatte, rated in the Wine Spectator and featured in Bon Appetit. He returned to his native New York to share his culinary prowess at his Village Cheese Shop.

Winemaker Gilles Martin ~ Born in Champagne, Gilles moved to France's Languedoc wine area to obtain a degree in biology and food sciences and a prestigious Masters of Oenology. His Master's thesis won him national acclaim and a first prize, awarded by former France president Jacques Chirac. Sparkling Pointe's winemaker, Gilles boasts 30 years of experience.

Chef Noah Schwartz ~ Chef Noah is a native Long Islander and New England Culinary Institute alum. He began his culinary career in Sonoma California before moving back to Long Island. He has been lauded by Best Chefs in America in 2012 and 2013 and has received numerous accolades. He is known for curating locally-sourced ingredients at his small-plates restaurant, Noah's.

THE SAVORY GRAPE

Sip, savor and socialize while enjoying wine country travels with The Savory Grape. Combining the unparalleled service of The Savory Affair with the vineyard connections and wine knowledge of The Savory Grape each experience provides a unique and memorable boutique-styled personalized tour that will enhance your own passion for wine and food.

Since its start in 2006, The Savory Grape has become one of the premier businesses in New England for wine & wine travel, craft beer & specialty spirits. Jessica also brings her proven business passion and success to The Savory Affair, her event experience & consultation company that provides strategy to companies and non-profits on event development.

Jessica Granatiero, proprietor & owner of The Savory Grape, has designed this exclusive trip with dedication to wine, seasonal, local & gourmet cuisine. Jess travels the world and brings the small corner of Long Island alive to you, sharing her knowledge and joy of wine.

Tulay Lawton, general manager and food & wine educator, will co-lead this experience with Jessica. From Turkey, Tulay brings her passion and knowledge of food and wine to enhance all educational experiences at The Savory Grape. Tulay has been featured in the Providence Business News as the Top 40 under 40 years.

INVESTMENT

$1,345 per person, double occupancy before November 1 ($1,395 after November 1). A 50% deposit is required to secure a reservation. To book the experience, please contact Jessica, Jessica@thesavorygrape.com. Reservations, which are nonrefundable, are accepted through January 30, 2018.

The tour begins on Long Island, when the shuttle picks you up on April 25 at 2:30PM from the Orient Point Ferry terminal. Ferry fares from New London, CT or other areas are not included in the price, but we can assist you with booking.